

PANIC in Ecuador!

Miranda's Travel Adventures is a series of international travel books written for school-age readers. Miranda dreams of traveling to different countries. In her dreams, she makes friends with young people who tell her the real facts about their history, culture and land.

This time she is in a classroom in Ecuador. It's class presentations day. All eyes are on Miranda to start speaking. How can she present research on a country she knows nothing about? She hardly speaks Spanish! How can she escape?

Ecuador
